TWO WOMEN'S LOVE AND ONE MAN'S PERIL AT THE PLAYS LAST NIGHT

EVERYHOUSEHADITS QUOTA

All Houses Last Night.

The Price of Peace" entered upon its Thursday night. It improves on quaintance, and the reduced prices add to the otherwise good attendance. "San Toy" had another big house at shoes that preserves the leather. It is Daiy's. The old story.

Noster & Bial's house opened in a whirlpool of success ast night. As is well known, this place is the home of the White Rata, and with Jim Corbett as a top-liner it has the strongest bill this week that has been seen on that stage this season.

stage this season.

Every seat in the Empire was occubled last night, "Mrs. Dane's Defense' continuing as the attraction.

David Belasco's "Mme. Butterfly" entered upon its fifth week last night at Proctor's Fifth avenue house. Added to the vaudeville features, the entertainment is most enjoyable.

"To Have and to Hold" conservation.

ment is most enjoyable.

"To Have and to Hold" runs on in its attractive way at the Knickerbocker.

Another big throng was present at the New York Theatre last night. The bill presented included the Prosper troupe of acrobats, the lively sketch "After Office Hours," with Dan McAvoy and Jessle May, Mamie Gilroy and a host of others.

on up the lane at a quick canter. The second man drew back into the shade of a tree and waited, keeping his eyes worlly upon the house all the while.

"We may as well get the men posted," hastening the preparations.

The soldier heard it too.

We heard him strike a lusty summons on the door panels and call to those within. Then everything was as still as the grave.

The man knocked again, and when the door remained unopened he went back to his companion, mounted his horse, and giving some instructions, set off up the lane at a guick canter. The second man drew back into the shade

We're in for a scrimmage."

He went down at once to give the necessary orders while I stayed to watch.

I had not long to wait. In a few minutes I heard the advancing footfalls of horses, and a number of troopers came swinging up the lane at a trot. I counted thirteen in all and thanked fleaven there were no more.

But the meant a fight, and I saw the man in command of the party taking his observations and giving his instructions to those under him to surround the house.

There was no need for me to watch.
